

60,584 Native People Enrolled for Benefits of Claims Settlement

Officials of the Alaska Native enrollment office in Anchorage said Thursday that 60,584 persons have enrolled to date for benefits of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, including

1,000 out-of-state. The Association of Village Council Presidents, in the Bethel area of Southwestern Alaska, has the largest enrollment, with 11,964 and the Copper River region, the smallest, with just under 600 persons applying. The deadline for enrollment is March 30, 1973. Other regional reports include: Aleut League, 1,525; Arctic Slope region, 2,846; Bering Straits region, 4,612; Bristol Bay region, 3,651; Cook Inlet, 8,843; Chugach, 1,223; Kodiak, 2,177; Northwest Alaska, 3,688; Tanana Chiefs Conference, 7,999; and Tlingit-Haida Central Council, 10,460. Enrollment coordinator Gary T. Longley Sr. has resigned his post to become executive director for the new Bering Straits Native Corp. at Nome. Assistant coordinator George Walters, will take over Longley's duties Tuesday, as acting coordinator, with enrollment officer Frances Degnan, of Unalakleet, stepping up to Walter's post.

FINALLY. AN 80CC BIKE WITH SOME GUTS.

Take the ST80. It has the guttiest 80cc engine on the market, yet it handles like a lightweight, safe and easy. How big is it? Big enough to fly up a 13,000 foot mountain with a 200-pounder aboard.

Jim Boudreaux brings Santa Claus to town.

It's not just that Jim put together the Anchorage Christmas Parade or the servicemen's Christmas Dinner Program, but as president of the Anchorage Jaycees he helped bring Santa to 100 children who were treated to a free holiday shopping spree. Kids are important to Jim, and Jaycee projects like the Junior Fish Derby, which brings area youngsters out to vie for fish in a specially-stocked lake, emphasize the things that are important to kids. As staff accountant for Atlantic Richfield, Jim deals in pretty high finance, but he's knowledgeable about other money matters, too, through work on Jaycee projects like a benefit nightclub performance for the retarded children's association, or raising funds for the Children's Zoo.
