

EARL NORRIS has been competing in the Championship races since they began only missing two. He finished sixth over-all.

LEONARD HUNGTINTON, of Koyukuk, took off down the chute in eighth position after the times of the first day had been tallied.

1976 Fur Rendezvous

DONNA GENTRY, of Willow showed that women can compete along with the men in sled dog racing. She won two out of three day races and finished second over-all.

ALFRED ATTILA leaves the chute in the No. 1 position after one day of racing.

*Photos by Sue
Gamache*

MERV HILLPIPRE, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, mashes his way to a fifth place finish in the World Championship Sled Dog Races.

FRANK SAMPSON of Noorvik passes Lefty Shallock of Fairbanks as Shallock stops to make an adjustment in his team.