

NENANAN TO OREGON—Terry Duyck, 17, visits the Alaska State Manpower Center en route to Yachats, Oregon, where he will join the Job Corps. Accompanied by his father, Percy Duyck, of Nenana, Terry went to Fairbanks on September 16 for the swearing in ceremony, and to get final instructions before departing for Angell Job Corps Center. Shown with Terry and Mr. Duyck are George Ziegler, Staff Counselor at the University of Alaska, and J.E. O'Rourke, Manager of the Fairbanks Manpower Center, who conducted the official swearing in.

Equal Employment Man Appointed by Governor

JUNEAU—Jack R. Simpson of Anchorage has been appointed Equal Employment Coordinator for the State of Alaska by Governor Keith H. Miller.

This position is required and partially funded by the Federal Government, having been established by Congress in 1968.

Simpson will be specifically concerned with employment practices involved in federally funded highway projects in Alaska. He will develop and implement an Equal Program to assure that employment will be provided without regard to race, color, or national origin.

A former member of the Alaska State Legislature, Simpson owned and operated the Northern Insurance Adjusters, with offices in Anchorage, Fairbanks Juneau and Ketchikan. He recently sold the business, after 17 years of operation, and is now, in his words, "free to be a public servant."

Simpson will work out of the Federal Building in Juneau.

Cultivation of Native Talent Being Sought

The "Alaska Talent Agency" under the direction of Mr. Tom Haley was recently formed to serve Alaska with local, national and international entertainment. Plus co-ordinating programs, shows, etc. to supply the world with entertainers from Alaska.

The "Alaska Talent Agency" with associated agencies throughout the world will serve as a central agency so that night clubs, groups, etc. wishing any type of entertainment may contact the agency office. Also agencies throughout the world will have a central contact.

A. A Department of the Alaska Talent Agency will devote full time to local artist and club demands.

B. The Department will likewise devote full time in negotiating and distributing talent in Alaska and world wide.

Mr. Tom Haley with over twenty years in the business end of the music and entertainment industry has handled booking's for most of the great names in the business, Waylon Jennings is just one that received his start and success through the efforts and management of Mr. Haley.

Waylon is now one of the top country and western entertainers in the nation.

Mr. Haley (states) he has been in Alaska since August 1967 and has seen the natural talent the native Alaskan has in playing music.

"I hope to cultivate this talent and let a very proud race be even prouder of their accomplishment in the music world."

Haley may be reached through the following address and phone: P.O. Box 3-3996, JW Elledge Bldg., 1100 Gambell St., Anchorage 99501. Phone 279-6519.

Yellowknife Winter Game Contestants Eyed

A series of meetings will be held Saturday and Sunday at 11 a.m. in Room 201, Community Center, Sixth and G Streets, Anchorage, Alaska.

Discussion will be about choosing Alaska's athletes to attend the first Arctic Winter Games at Yellowknife, Northwest Territories in March 1970.

Athletic Representatives are expected from most areas of the State.

Sports are curling, volleyball, table tennis, hockey, figure skating, basketball (men and women) badminton, cross country skiing, boxing and shooting.

Leaders of these Anchorage groups are asked to attend to lend advice and to meet the Alaska State Coordinator for the winter games.

For further information, phone Louie Strutz at 272-5522, Parks and Recreation Department, or Bill Barrett at 272-1342.

Navy Offers Lease of Land In Arctic

The Department of the Navy is offering for lease 1100 acres of land with available structures and miscellaneous support facilities including a 3000 foot gravel runway, comprising the U.S. Naval Arctic Research Site, (POW-C), Point McIntyre, Alaska.

The site lies approximately seven miles northwest of Prudhoe Bay between Point McIntyre and Point Storkerson and fronts the Beaufort Sea.

Bids are solicited for lump sum lease of the entire site. The lease will be for General Purposes (Surface Use) and commence about 1 October 1969, for an initial term of one year with the right of renewal for up to five years.
