they made back in 1951 for taking of the aboriginal title.

Through their attorneys, Roger Connor of Juneau and Don Green of Wash., D. C., the Aleuts will argue that they are included in the generic term "Indians" as native inhabitants of Alaska.

The attorneys are expected to point out, along with other arguments, that even William H. Seward, Secretary of State at the time of the Alaska purchase from Russia in 1867, declared in a memorandum that "...the Indians to
