

Images of Frobisher Bay

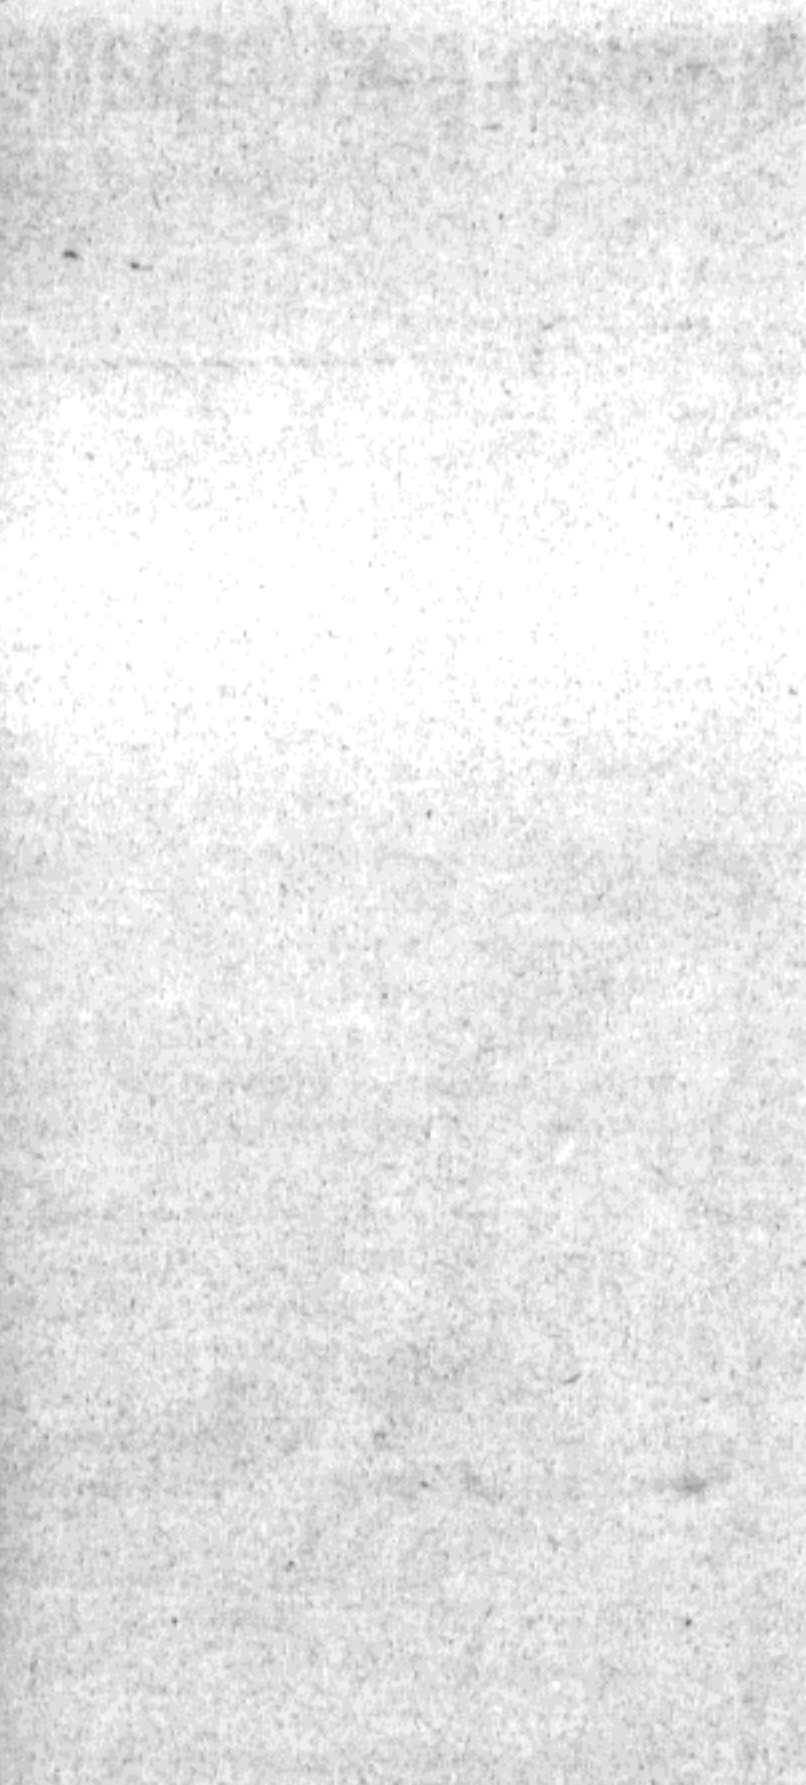

Aiaka Miteq of Greenland ends a song which tells a tragic story of old.

Johnny Noovea of Frobisher Bay fights mosquitoes as his friend, Kapik Ipeelie, looks on. The two boys were planning to leave on a seal and caribou hunting trip with their families in just a few days.

Martin Woods of NANA competes in the ICC Olympic games, as he successfully completes a one-hand reach.

A Canadian Inuit calls for a nuclear-free North even as a poster on the wall of the high school in which the ICC meetings were held promotes the opposite view.

Alaska participants sing during an international, non-denominational church service in Frobisher Bay.