

SPECIAL REPORT

SPECIAL REPORT

Cultural revival evident at Celebration '82

Tsimshian dancers from Metlakatla perform for the crowd and are joined by members of other tribes.

Michael Chittick, right, dances in an adoption ceremony. Also pictured (left to right) are David Katzeek, President of the Sealaska Heritage Foundation, Byron Mallot, Chairman of the Sealaska Corporation, and Judson Brown, Chairman, Sealaska Heritage Foundation.

Jimmie George of Angoon passes the knowledge of his forefathers on to younger generations.

PHOTOS BY BILL HESS

Tommie Jimmie of Haines performing at Celebration '82.

Traditional chief of Angoon, Matthew Fred.

Leslie Williams, Haida

Jennie Thlunaut, elder

Tsimshian dancer.

"This is a big song and dance that she's waited 72 years for," says Albert Porter of his grandmother, Maggie John. Both live in Yakutat.

Young Haida dancers prepare for their turn onstage.

Cindy Evenson, (left to right) Raymond Evenson, and a friend all hit a point where they had to take a break.