NOTICE OF INTENT

The Alaska Federation of Natives Housing Authority is planning to advertise for developers for the construction of 332 single family housing units in 14 villages approximately October 16, 1972. These units will be built under the Department of Housing and Urban Development's Turnkey III Method of Construction.

This notice of intent is issued to give prospective developers an opportunity to inspect the project sites prior to winter and before the formal advertisement date. The bid openings will be a minimum of 35 days from the date of the formal advertisement in October, which will appear in the legal section of this paper.

Information on the project locations in each village; preliminary schematics of the floor plans and elevations, and the estimated number of two, three, and four bedroom units to be built in each village can be obtained from the Alaska Federation of Natives, 1675 C Street, Anchorage, Alaska 99501.

It is anticipated that when a category, as listed below, contains more than one village, developers will be required to submit a proposal on all villages within that category. The villages expected to be built in each village are as
