

Pics of Nome Employment Development Meeting

BARBARA TRIGG of Nome, coordinator of the meeting, just before she presented the stone gavel to Willard Bowman, director of the State Commission for Human Rights. Miss Trigg got the stone impliment from Nannie Ooyatorna of Pt. Hope.

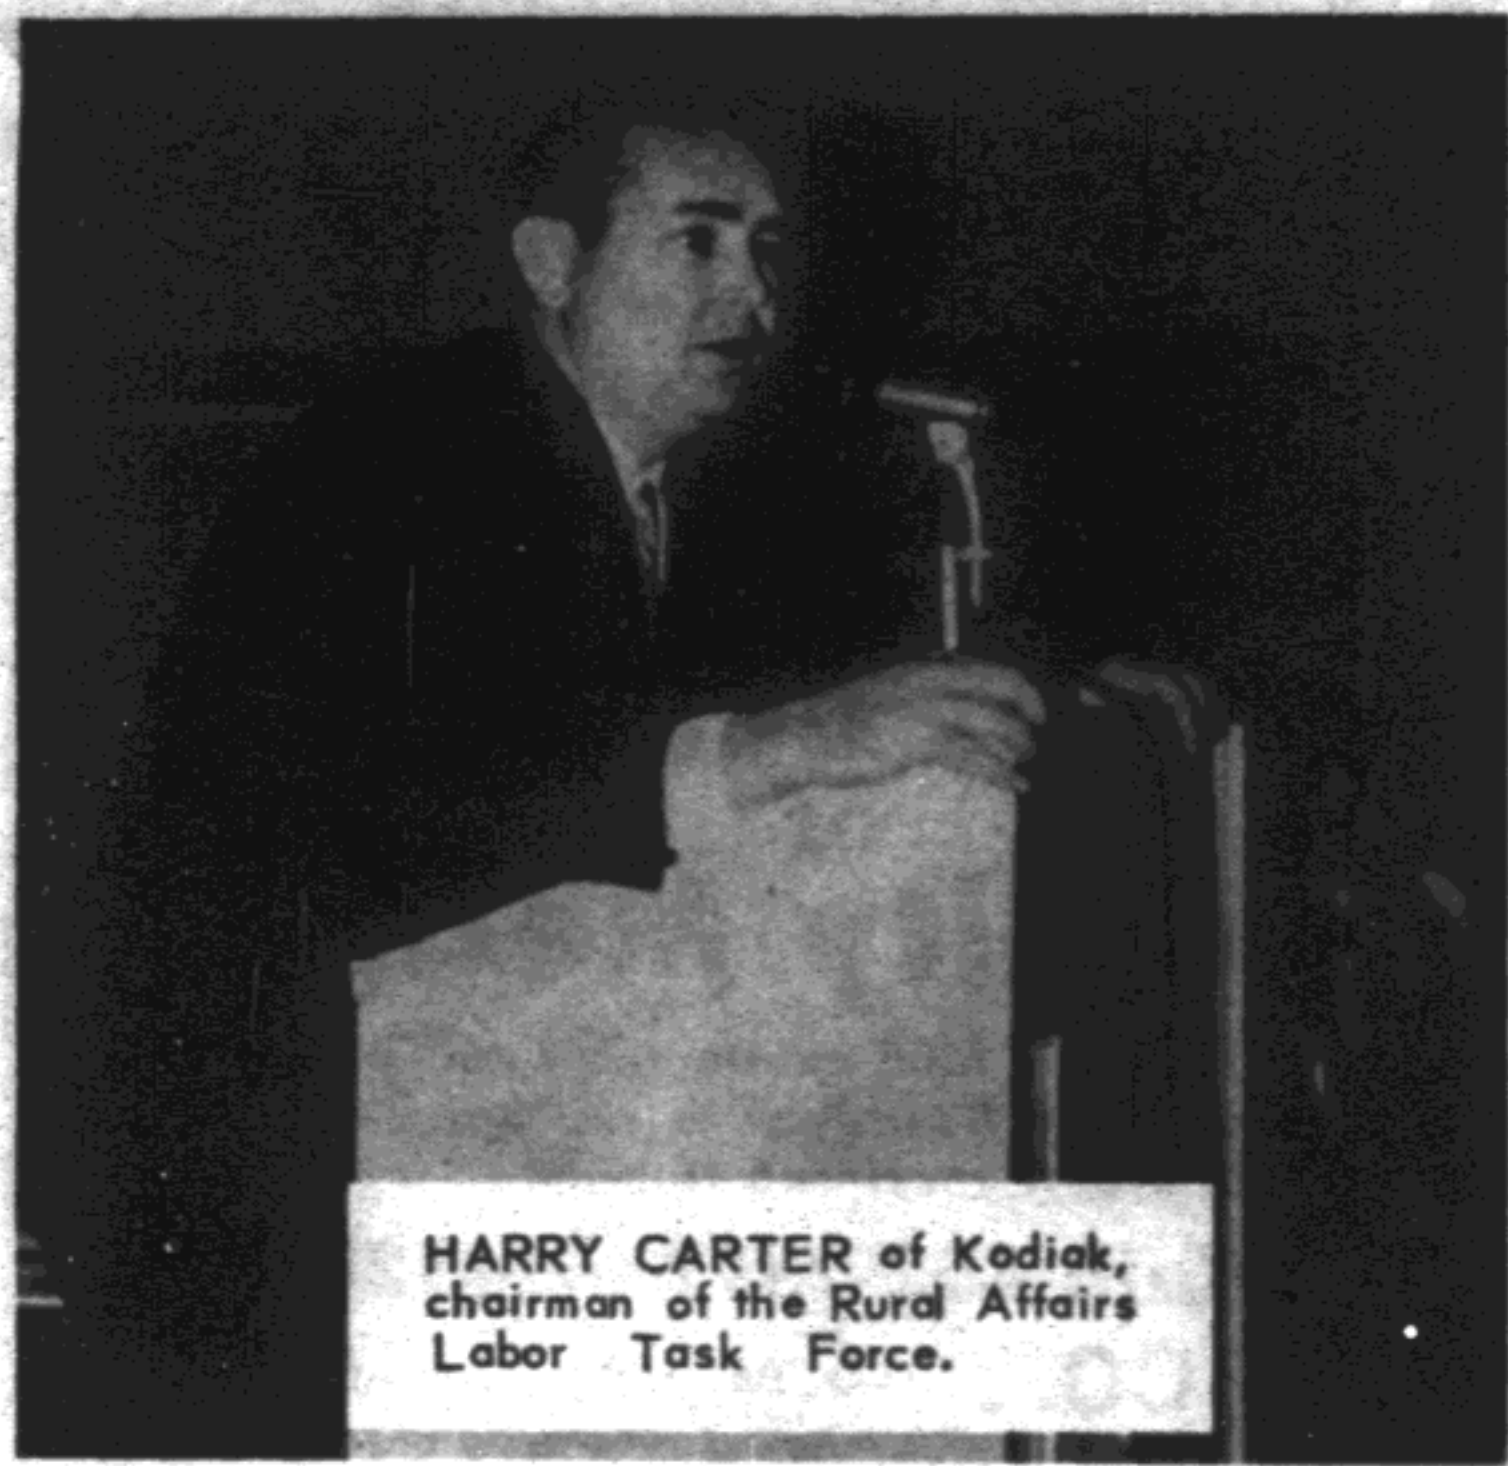

CHARLIE SHELDON of Shungnak, "...First time I speak in a mike like this but I like it..."

RI CHARD FRANK, Minto, Fairbanks, "Our association is concerned about the dropout."

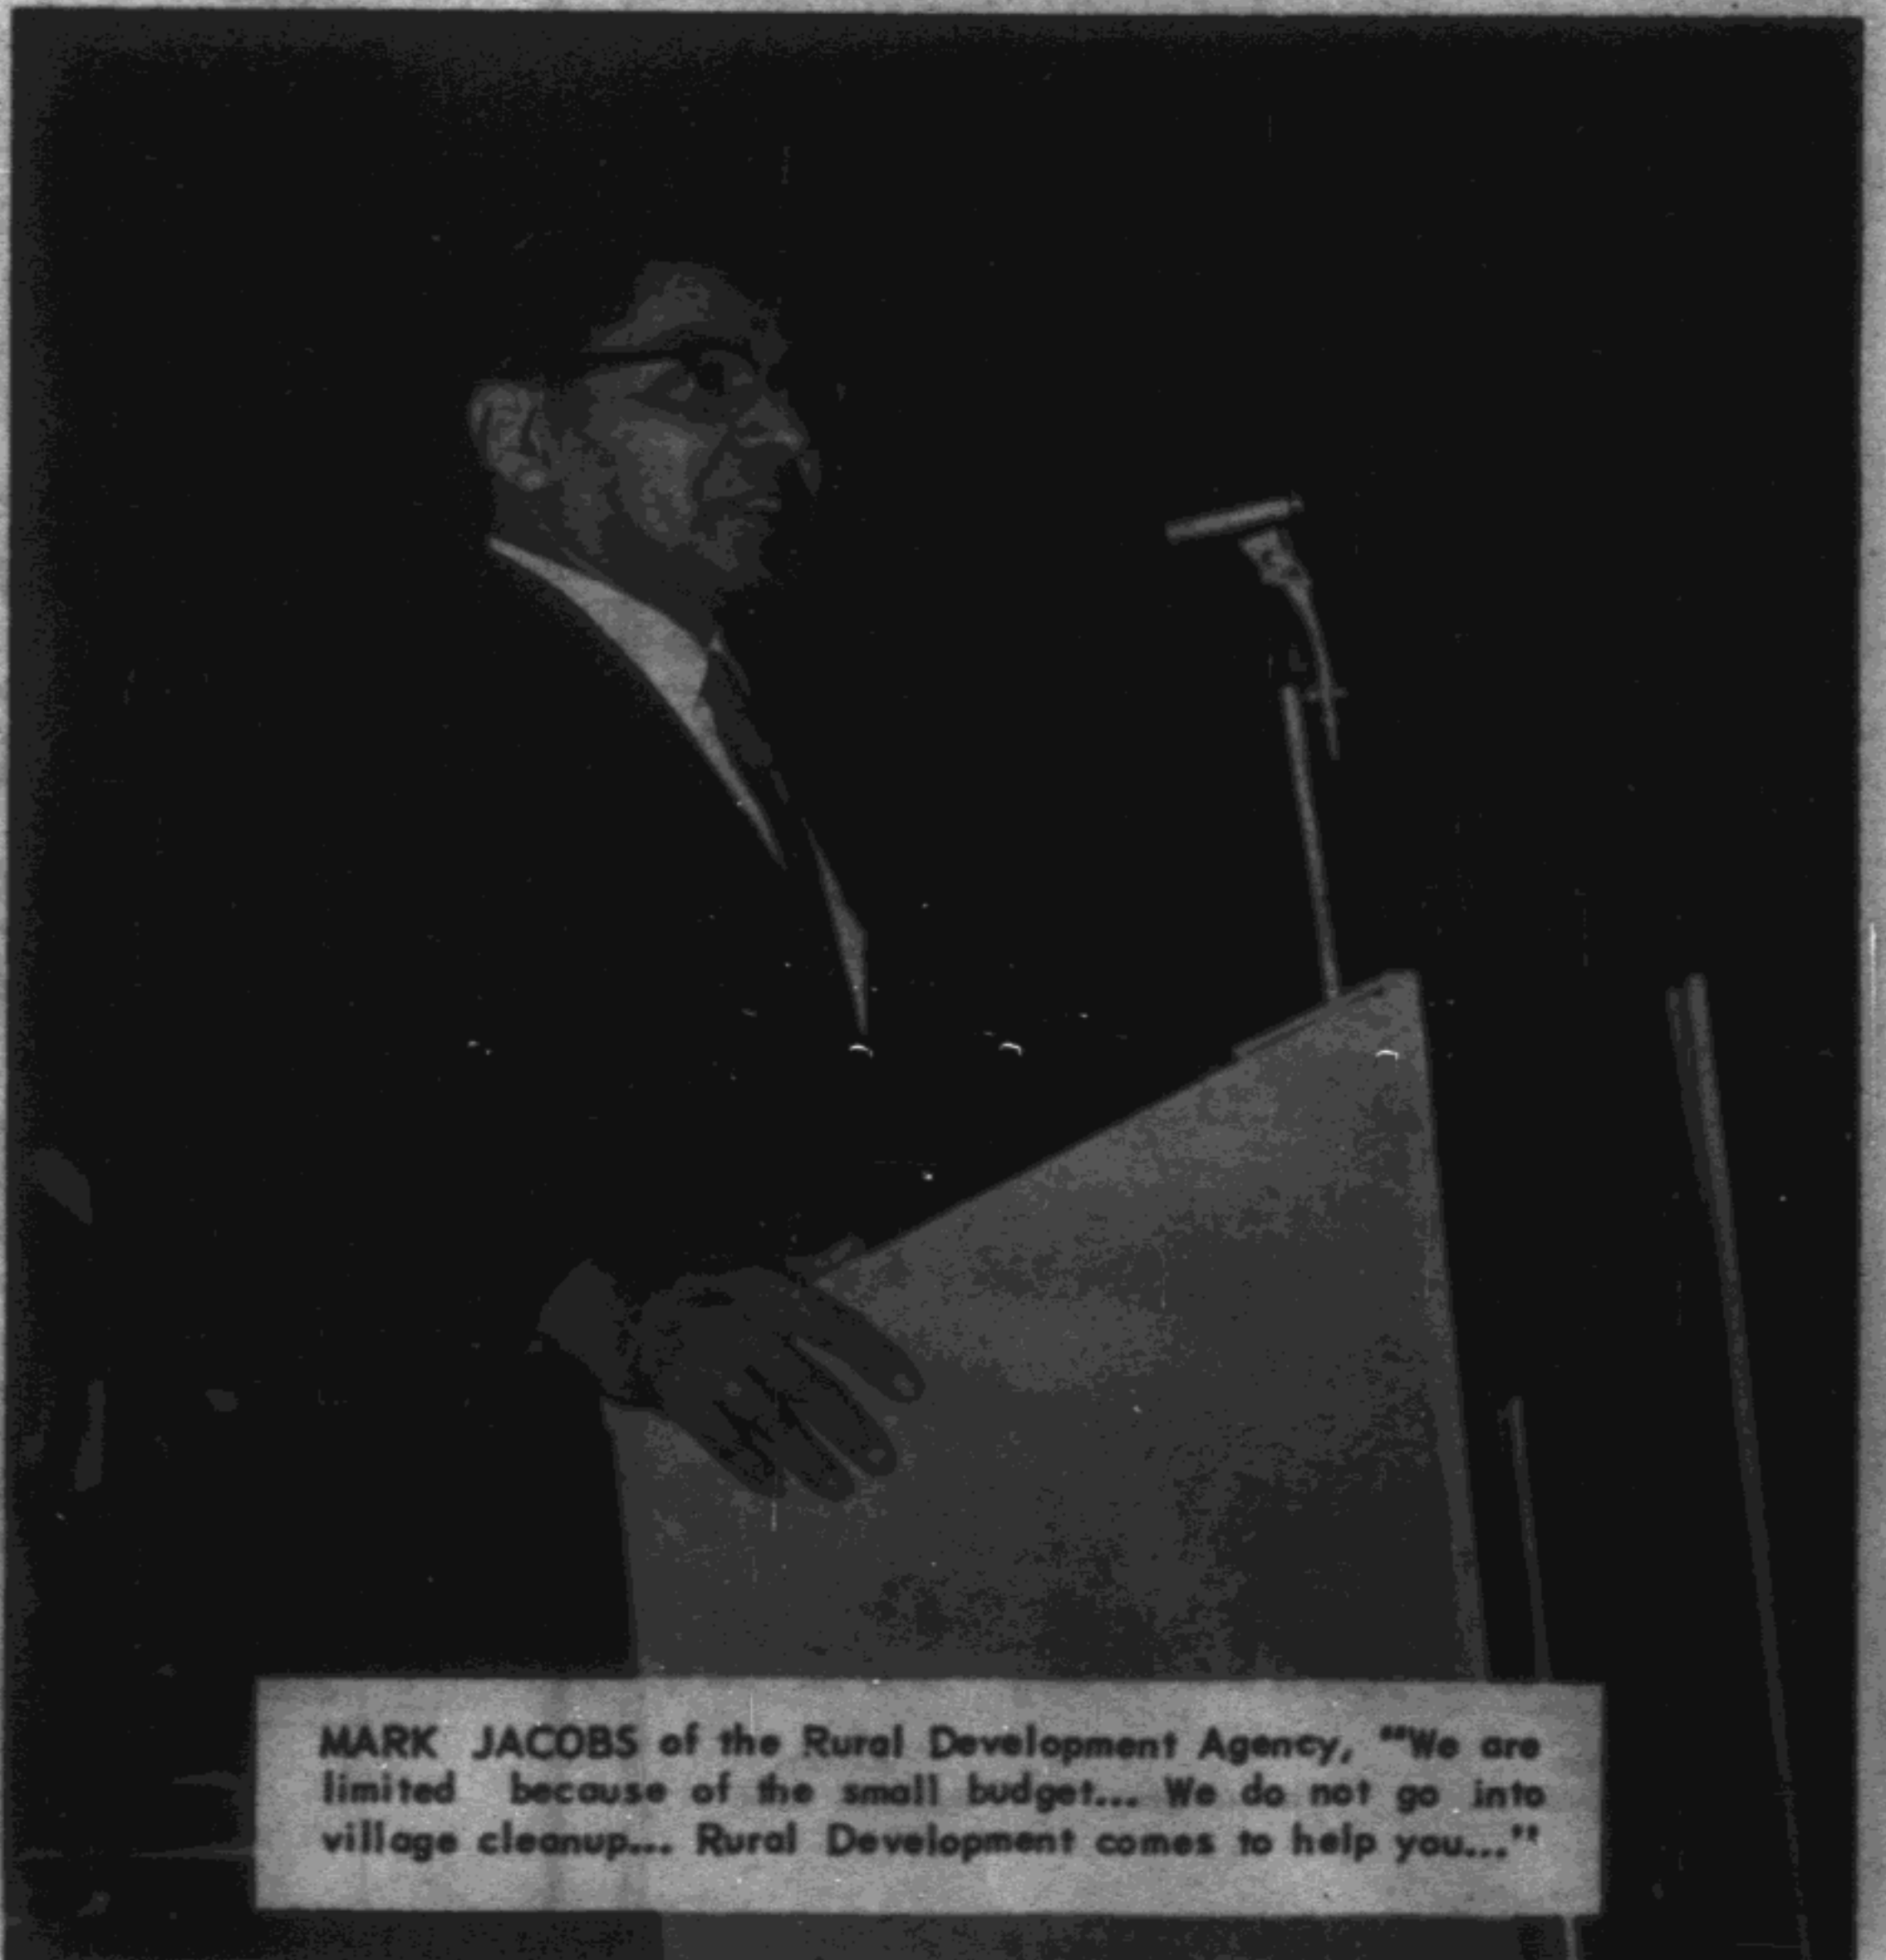

Photos by
Times Editor
Howard Rock

HARRY CARTER of Kodiak, chairman of the Rurd Affairs Labor Task Force.

REP. WILLIE HENSLEY, left, talks to Capt. John Schaeffer of the Nat'l Guard.

MARK JACOBS of the Rural Development Agency, "We are limited because of the small budget... We do not go into village cleanup... Rural Development comes to help you..."